Dear Mr. McGee:

Enclosed is the signed copy of the Contract for Perpetual Care for our lot.

In the Deed the county describing our residence is not correct. My residence is in DeKalb County and my daughter-in-law and her parents live in Barrow County. Whether or not this error needs correcting I have no idea, but I did want to call it to your attention.

Thank you for letting us visit the cemetary after hours last Wednesday. We were passing through Athens and could not get there any sooner. Our daughter from Dallas, Texas was with us so we were especially pleased to get in since she had not visited Adrian's grave since July.

Best wishes for 1987.

Dear Mr. Dozier:

Mr. Choate is spending a few days at his camp in North Carolina and has written me regarding your letter of July 8th on the subject of perpetual care of his cemetery lot. I quote a portion of his letter:

"I am sending letter received from A. W. Dozier, Secty. of the Oconee Hill Cemetery, which I should say is very satisfactory, i. e. the price seems reasonable enough as well as other conditions. I know quite well the present members of the board and they are all fine men; men of unquestioned ability and character, all.

"I suppose the contract is to be made in duplicate and you might suggest to the secretary, Mr. Dozier, that if he will do the needful in this connection we will upon receipt of an executed contract by them, mail them a copy executed by me, together with deposit requirement of $200."

If you will prepare the contract and send it to me I will get Mr. Choate to sign it the next time he is in the city and return it to you promptly.

Dear Mr. Bisson:

Will you please advise me what kind of contract you can give for perpetual care of a cemetary lot in Oconee Cemetary. I believe I now pay annually for that service, but in anticipation of the time when I will not be here to look after these annual payments I should like to have a copy of such a contract and the amount charged. Please also advise who is behind this contract and send me a financial statement of the guarantor.

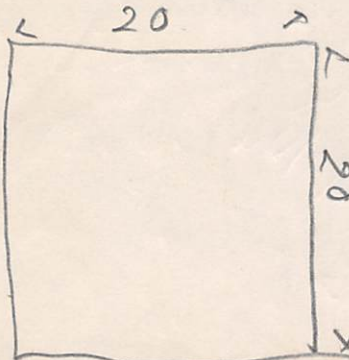

I have alot near the entrance of the cemetary on which there is one small grave. Can you give me the dimensions of this lot and the number of graves that it will accomodate. I want this information for the purpose of determining the proper memorial stone that it will take care of.
