At a meeting of the Trustees of Occanee Hill Cemetery on April 22nd, 1940, It was stated that Miss A. W. Brumby wished to place the Frierson Lot in perpetual care, she had in hand a total of $219.55 the remainder of Miss Marianna Friersons estate, which was set aside for the specific purpose perpetual care of the lot.

Based on the present price and area of the lot it would require a $244.00, after considering the matter and under the circumstances, it was decided to accept the amount in hand and place the Frierson lot in perpetual care.

This memo is attached to the contract to explain why the full amount was not required by the Trustees.
